United States v. Horne et al., 10 Cr. 954 (RJH)

Dear Judge Holwell,

We represent defendant Naquan Horne in the above-referenced case. Mr. Horne is scheduled to appear before a magistrate judge on October 25, 2011 to enter a plea pursuant to a global plea agreement that has been offered by the Government. We understand that the other defendants in this case are also scheduled to enter pleas, either on October 25, 2011 or October 21, 2011.

We write because suppression motions are currently due on October 14, 2011. In the event that a plea is not entered and accepted, Mr. Horne seeks to preserve his ability to file a suppression motion at a later date. Therefore, we ask that the motion schedule be adjourned and held in abeyance, pending further developments in this case. The Government consents to this request, and this request is joined by counsel for defendants Wayne Scott and Christopher Lee.

Appellate Counsel
ORDERED
D. Scott
10/14/11

Sincerely,

William C. Weeks
